6. Fees

- 6.1. Our fees are based on a number of factors including the complexity and urgency of the engagement, the time taken to perform the work, the seniority of persons undertaking the work, the level of research and development which has been used in connection with the engagement and the specialised knowledge and responsibility involved.
- 6.2. All non-fixed fees (whether or not expressly described in the Agreement) are reviewed and revised annually with effect from 30 November, or such other date as we may determine, in line with the Irish Consumer Price Index or 3% (whichever is greater).
- 6.3. Notwithstanding Clause 6.2, we reserve the right to amend all non-fixed fees at any time subject to us giving 30 calendar days' notice of the changes to you.
- 6.4. Where a fixed fee has been agreed, this shall be reviewed and revised annually on the anniversary of the provision of services or such other date as we may determine, and confirmed to you in Writing. Revisions to fixed fees will take into account, among other things, the Irish Consumer Price Index, other increases in our costs of doing business and the anticipated amount of time we'll dedicate to providing the Services in the forthcoming 12 months.

- 6.5. We will issue invoices to you as agreed in the Letter of Engagement. From time to time we may consider it necessary to issue an interim invoice that will require an interim payment. An interim invoice will typically be issued as a result of additional work carried out.
- 6.6. Any reference to fees will be exclusive of VAT (unless otherwise stated) which will be charged at the appropriate rate on fees and expenses liable for VAT.

- 7.8. In the event that we receive remuneration from a third party in connection with a transaction effected by us with or for you we shall advise the nature of the remuneration to you.
- 7.9. We reserve the right to pay any introductory fees to third parties as a direct or indirect result of their involvement in your or any other Client appointment.
- 7.10. We reserve the right, where fees have been invoiced and payment is outstanding, to exercise a lien over any documents or assets belonging to you, the Client Entity and/or any related person which may be in our possession or control (save for statutory documents). Any such lien will remain in effect until we are paid all outstanding fees under the terms of the Agreement.

8. Electronic Transfers

We reserve the right to return funds received by Electronic Transfer where there is insufficient information to satisfy our regulatory requirements and applicable AML/CFT legislation. Reasonable effort will be made to ensure that the matter is brought to the attention of the remitter. Any costs for returning electronic transfers will be charged to the remitter.

9. Client Money

- 9.1. Any interest that accrues on any sum of money held by us in the name of ICM Group (including Client Bank Accounts) will be retained by us.
- 9.2. Any interest that accrues on any sum of money held within bank accounts in your name or that of the Client Entity (specific client accounts) and maintained by us may be retained by you or the Client Entity (as the case may be).
- 9.3. A Client Bank Account is specially created by us for the purpose of holding money belonging to you and/or the Client Entity and the money of other clients. The Client Bank Account is segregated from any other bank account in our name holding money which is our money.
- 9.4. All Client Bank Accounts are held at recognised banks. A recognised bank is a bank which holds a licence issued by the European Central Bank for deposit taking or is authorised under the law of another acceptable country or territory to carry on activities corresponding to deposit taking.
- 9.5. Please note that an account held in your name or that of the Client Entity is not a Client Bank Account. It is mandated to you or the Client Entity (as the case may be) and is the legal owner of the money held in that account. As the money in these accounts is not classed as Client Money the details relating to pooling of money in Client Bank Accounts (as detailed below) do not apply.
- 9.6. A Client Bank Account usually holds money of multiple clients of Martyn Fiddler Aviation Ireland Limited. The money may be held at one bank or the money may be in multiple accounts spread across several banks.
- 9.7. In the event of a default of a bank where we have a Client Bank Account, Client Money held in all of our Client Bank Accounts will be pooled (even if money is held in more than one Client Bank Account and the accounts are held in more than one bank). In this situation, each client who has money in the Client Bank Account will lose an equal proportion of their money, whether or not the bank where Client Money belonging to you or the Client Entity is held with is in default. This loss will be adjusted by any compensation arrangements in place.

- 9.8. Where Client Money needs to be held in a Client Bank Account (as opposed to a specific account in your name or the name of the Client Entity), we reserve the right to charge a handling fee of 1% of Client Money credited to the Client Bank Account. The handling fee may be deducted from the Client Money. The maximum charge for the handling fee shall be £500 or such other amount as may be notified to you in accordance with Clause 6.2.

We agree that all dividends, and other distributions in respect of the shares shall belong to (and be held by us as nominee for) you (subject to any third-party rights created by you). If you represent more than one individual, you shall be entitled to the shares as joint tenants with rights of survivorship unless it is otherwise provided to the contrary by you in Writing to us.
- 10.4. We are expressly authorised by you, in rendering the Services, to act on and rely upon the instructions or advice received by you, or any person we bona fide believe to be duly authorised by you, in all matters concerning the Agreement.
- 10.5. In the event of any conflict between the instructions and advice received by us, we may rely on such instructions as we, in our absolute discretion, consider to be in the best interests of the parties involved or we may decline to act. Such instructions or advice from you may be communicated orally or in Writing, and with or without authentication. We, however, shall be entitled to require written confirmatory instructions from you as a precondition of acting on such instructions and shall have no liability in relation to any delay caused thereby.
- 10.6. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we and our Officers may, at any time, do or refrain from doing any act if we shall, in our absolute discretion, consider it proper to do so in connection with our duties or the laws of any country having jurisdiction over the Services.

You hereby agree to hold us harmless in respect of a Bank's Failure to Repay. You accept and acknowledge that the terms of this exclusion of liability and irrevocably acknowledge the reasonableness of this exclusion.

- 11.5. We shall not be required to take any legal action for you or the Client Entity unless we are fully indemnified by you to our reasonable satisfaction for all costs and liabilities likely to be incurred or suffered by us and if you require
